22320

CONTENTS OF VOL. I.

No. I. Page.

Address . . . 1
Further Remarks on the Design of this Journal . . . 1
The Week—From Wednesday April 2, to Tuesday April 8 . . . 2
News for the Utilitarians . . . 3
The London Journal—April 2 . . . 4
Romance of Real Life . . . 5
Cleone, a new Novel. An intire Abstract . 6

No. II.

On a Stone . . . 9
The Week—From Wednesday April 9, to Tuesday April 15 . . . 10
Brother Merry; or, the Adventures of a Soldier . . . 11
The London Journal.—April 9 . . . 12
Romances of Real Life . . . 12
Goodness and Pleasure . . . 13
Memoirs of Judge Jeffreys . . . 13
A Handful of Good Sense . . . 15
Table Talk.—The Plant Physician—A Moderate Food—Conversation of Men of Genius—Possibility—Marriages—Man . . 15
To Correspondents . . . 16

No. III.

Letters to such of the Lovers of Knowledge as have not had a Classical Education.—Letter I. 17
The Week—From Wednesday April 16, to Tuesday April 22 . . . 18
Paganinni, from unpublished Poem by the Editor . . . 19
Goodness and Pleasure . . . 20
The London Journal.—April 16 . . . 20
Monsieur Dupont. Abstract of a Novel of that name . . . 21
Romance of Real Life . . . 22
Table Talk.—Wirteinberg Wines—Pleasing Regrets . . . 24

No. IV.

Letters to such of the Lovers of Knowledge as have not had a Classical Education.—Letter II. . . . 25
The Week.—From Wednesday April 23, to Tuesday April 29 . . . 27
Romances of Real Life . . . 27
Anecdote of Shenstone's youth . . . 28
The London Journal.—April 23 . . . 28
More Admirable Maxims and Suggestions from Bentham's unpublished work . . 29
Legends of Richard the Good, Duke of Normandy . . . 30
Fruits of Public Speaking . . . 30
Enjoyments and Obstacles . . . 31
Table Talk.—Queen Elizabeth—A Pedigree of some standing—Ivy does not make Houses damp—The Sugar-cane in Leicestershire—A complete yet puzzling Answer . 32

No. V.

To-morrow, the First Day of May . . 33
The Week—From Wednesday April 30, to Tuesday May 6 . . . 34
Romances of Real Life . . . 35
The London Journal.—April 30 . . . 36
Interview of Mr Fox with Bonaparte . . 37
Mrs Gore's New Novel,—'The Hamiltons' . 37
Table Talk.—Parish Dinners in 1640 and 1794—A Delicate Distress—The Birmingham Coach in 1742—A Fox at Deptford . . 39

No. VI.

A Human Being and a Crowd . . . 41
The Week.—From Wednesday May 7, to Tuesday May 13 . . . 42
Romance of Real Life . . . 42
The London Journal.—May 7 . . . 44
A Rhinoceros Hunt . . . 44
A Good Fellow.—Abstract of De Kock's Novel,—'Un Bon Enfant' . . . 45
The Ass on the Bench; from the Latin of Père Commire. . . . 47
Lines set to Music by Henry R. Bishop . 47
Table Talk.—Elegant Intervals of the Fine Arts—A Remark well worth Universal Reflection—Desirable Source of Revenue—A Nice Geographer—Preservation of the City of Dort by Milk-maids—Filial Account of one's Father's Attractions—Reading . 47

No. VII.

Thoughts in Bed upon Waking and Rising . 49
The Week—From Wednesday May 14, to Tuesday May 20 . . . 50
Romances of Real Life . . . 51

Page.

A Specimen or two of existing Persian Manners . . . 52
Dreaming by System . . . 52
Legends of Ireland . . . 53
The Admirable Chrichton . . . 53
A Masonic Exhortation . . . 55
A Practical Joke . . . 55

No. VIII.

Cricket and Exercise in General . . . 57
The Week—From Wednesday May 21, to Tuesday, May 27 . . . 58
A Surprise for a Sultan . . . 59
Romance of Real Life . . . 60
Frightful Interior of a Moorish Government and Family . . . 61
Shopping . . . 63

No. IX.

Letters to such of the Lovers of Knowledge as have not received a Classical Education.—Letter III. . . . 65
The Week.—From Wednesday, May 28, to Tuesday, June 3 . . . 66
Cavier's Theory of the Earth . . . 68
Paganini (Verses on) . . . 71
Turpin's Ride to Hough Green . . . 71
Izaac Walton and Angling . . . 71
Table Talk.—Curious Ancient Boat . . 71
To Correspondents . . . 71

No. X.

Letters to such of the Lovers of Knowledge as have not received a Classical Education.—Letter IV. . . . 73
The Week—From Wednesday, June 4, to Tuesday, June 10 . . . 74
Romance of Real Life . . . 75
John Buncle . . . 77
Female Convicts . . . 79
Table Talk.—Egyptian Doctors . . . 79

No. XI.

Letters to such of the Lovers of Knowledge as have not received a Classical Education.—Letter V. . . . 81
The Week—From Wednesday June 11, to Tuesday June 17 . . . 82
The Dean of Santiago and Don Illan of Toledo 83
Romance of Real Life . . . 84
Songs of Trades, or Songs for the People . 84
John Ledyard . . . 86
A Haunted House . . . 87
Table Talk.—The Italian Boy—Affecting Proof of a Loving Disposition—Singular Frontispiece—Affecting Association of Ideas 87
To Correspondents . . . 87

No. XII.

To the Public . . . 89
A Pinch of Snuff . . . 89
The Week—From Wednesday June 18, to Tuesday June 24 . . . 89
Romance of Real Life . . . 90
Modern Antiques.—Paganini Anticipated . 91
The Reader Domesticated with the Old Dutch Colonies at the Cape of Good Hope . . 91
The White House.—Abstract of a Novel,—'La Maison Blanc' . . . 92
Application of Steam to various Purposes . 94
The Regulatiors . . . 94
Personal Anecdotes of Burns . . . 95
A Fair Devil . . . 95
Table Talk.—The Pet of the Petticoats—Catching is not Keeping . . . 95
To Correspondents . . . 95

No. XIII.

A Pinch of Snuff (concluded) . . . 97
The Week—From Wednesday June 25, to July 1 . . . 98
Romance of Real Life . . . 99
Unsocial Readers of Periodicals . . . 101
Petrarch's Account of the Dreadful Storm at Naples . . . 101
Bianca Capello . . . 102
Friends and Boyhood. By John Galt . . 103
Table Talk.—Spenser's Stanza—Philosophy on Trifles—Apparent Idleness not always such—Death from a Frightened Imagination—True National Spirit—Venetian Horsemanship . . . 103
To Correspondents . . . 103

No. XIV.

Breakfast in Summer . . . 105
The Week—From Wednesday July 2, to Tuesday July 8 . . . 106
Hand Writings . . . 107

Page.

Romance of Real Life . . . 107
Cricket, Tennis, Fives, and Bowling . . 108
Kentuckey and the Sports there . . . 108
Tragical Disappearances from Light and Life 109
More Thoughts "On a Stone" . . . 110
Mr Morier's New Novel,—'Ayesha, the Maid of Kars' . . . 110
Table Talk.—Mrs Siddons, when a Child . 111
To Correspondents . . . 111

No. XV.

The Subject of Breakfast continued.—Tea Drinking . . . 113
Tea, Coffee, and Chocolate . . . 114
The Week—From Wednesday July 9, to Tuesday July 15 . . . 115
Romance of Real Life . . . 116
Specimens of Celebrated Authors . . . 117
Mrs Siddons.—Passages from her Life, by Mr Campbell . . . 118
Cricket, and a Fête Champêtre . . . 119
The Meeting of Jacob and Joseph . . . 119
Table Talk.—Fabricius Serbellone—A German Apologue—Affecting and Blessed Epitaph . . . 119
To Correspondents . . . 119

No. XVI.

Breakfast concluded.—Tea and Coffee, Milk, Bread, &c. . . . 121
The Week—From Wednesday July 16, to Tuesday July 22 . . . 122
Romance of Real Life . . . 123
Beau Nash . . . 123
Specimens of Celebrated Authors . . . 124
Three German Legends.—1. Honesty is the best Policy . . . 125
——2. Hans Jaguenteufel . . . 126
——3. The Green Robe 126
Medals, a kind of Books . . . 127
Italy . . . 127
To Correspondents . . . 127

No. XVII.

English and French Females . . . 129
Male and Female Costume, from the Reign of Charles II, to that of George III. . . 130
The Week—From Wednesday July 23, to Tuesday July 29 . . . 132
Romance of Real Life . . . 133
Specimens of Celebrated Authors . . . 133
Passages from the Autobiography of Sir Egerton Brydges.—Effect of Worldly Splendour upon Childhood—The Gentry of Kent—Lord Rokeby—Duncombe, the Translator of Horace—Bishop Berkeley's Family—Country Gentlemen 50 years ago—The Fame of Writers—A good Memorandum—Charge against Law Charges—Thomas Warton—Echo and Silence—Eloquent Regret and Important Advice . . . 134
Table Talk.—Unpleasant Remindings . . 135
To Correspondents . . . 135

No. XVIII.

To the Public . . . 137
English Male Costume . . . 137
Richard the Third a Dandy! . . . 138
The Week—From Wednesday July 30, to Tuesday August 5 . . . 138
Romance of Real Life . . . 139
Fine Arts, Music, &c. . . . 139
Memoir of Goethe . . . 140
Specimens of Celebrated Authors . . . 142
Mr Walsh and Mrs Behn . . . 144
To Correspondents . . . 144

No. XIX.

Some further Remarks on Goethe, with another Specimen of him . . . 145
The Week.—From Wednesday August 6, to Tuesday August 12 . . . 146
Romance of Real Life . . . 146
Specimens of Celebrated Authors . . . 147
Ventriloquism . . . 149
The German Prince's Account of his Voyage in a Balloon . . . 149
Correggio Julio Romano, and Annibal Caracci 150
Two Legends of the Wardrobe . . . 151
Table Talk.—The Game of Morra . . . 151
To Correspondents . . . 151

No. XX.

To our Readers . . . 153
English Women vindicated . . . 153
The Week.—From Wednesday August 13, to Tuesday August 19 . . . 154
Romance of Real Life . . . 154
Specimens of Celebrated Authors . . . 155

Page.

A Good Prince 156
Anecdote of a Highwayman 158
La Sortilega; or the Charmed Ring . . 159
Table Talk.—Reproof 160
To Correspondents 160

No. XXI.

Windows 161
The Week.—From Wednesday August 20, to August 26 162
Romance of Real Life 163
A Page for a Novel 163
Anthony's Speech over Cæsar 164
Magic and Magicians 165
Day and Night 168
Timely Intercession 168
Table Talk.—A Picture—A Guild of Poets—A French Wit—A Strange Prisoner . 168
To Correspondents 168

No. XXII.

Windows Considered from the Inside . . 169
The Week.—From Wednesday August 27, to Tuesday September 2 170
Romance of Real Life 173
Specimens of Celebrated Authors . . . 173
A Word on 'English Women Vindicated' . 174
Intolerance 174
Account of Assassins 175
Acknowledgments 176
Table Talk.—Admiration and Contempt . 176
To Correspondents 176

No. XXIII.

Objects of the London Journal 177
To a Little Bunch of Flowers, the Present of L. H. 178
The Week.—From Wednesday September 3, to Tuesday September 9 178
Our Readers Whisked to the Continent . . 179
Romance of Real Life 180
The Perception of Beauty and Nobleness not a Matter of Rank 181
A Lady's Portrait of Herself 181
Animal Magnetism 182
Utility and Beauty.—Spirit of the Fine Arts 183
Betty Bollaine, a Song 183
Goethe 184
Table Talk.—Modern German Nobleman . 184
Mr D'Israeli and Albertus Magnus . . . 184
To Correspondents 184

No. XXIV.

Dancing and Dancers 185
The Week.—From Wednesday September 10, to Tuesday September 16 186
Romance of Real Life 187
Hope 188
Our Readers whisked to the Continent . . 188
Letter of Archbishop Hering 189
Specimens of Celebrated Authors . . . 190
A Complaint against Hard Village Ways . 190
To Gathered Roses 191
"Your Address" 191
Bonnet, the Naturalist, and a Visitor at Fault 192
The Return (From the German of Müchler) . 192
To Correspondents 192

No. XXV.

A Flower for Your Window—Flowers—Mystery of their Beauty 193
The Week.—From Wednesday September 17, to Tuesday September 23 194
Romance of Real Life 195
Admirable Remarks on Advice-Giving . . 196
A Noble Dream of Cookery 196
Ladies of the Lake—not Fabulous . . . 197
Our Readers Whisked to the Continent . 197
Sonnet—To Earine 198
Proposed Opening of the Streets from Piccadilly to Lincoln's Inn 198
A Last Wish 199
Belief in Ghosts 199
Swearing 200
Dew-berries not Gooseberries 200
To Correspondents 200

No. XXVI.

Life after Death—Belief in Spirits . . . 201
The Week—From Wednesday September 24, to Tuesday September 30 202
Reminiscences of a Journey 202
Sonnet—Edinburgh 204
Queen Margaret of Navarre's Entrance into D'Usson 205
"Two Aged Oaks" in Hyde Park 205
A Reminiscence of the Fair of Bartholomew . 205
A Good Hint for Dancers 206
Romance of Real Life 206
Specimens of Celebrated Authors . . . 207
The Fall of the Rhine at Schaffhausen . . 208
To Correspondents 208

No. XXVII.

Fairies 209
Ballad Singers 211
An Aged Poet and his Young Enthusiast . 211

Page.

The Week.—From Wednesday October 1, to Tuesday October 7 212
The Brewer 213
An Episode from one of Goethe's Untranslated Novels 213
Dr Johnson's Father 214
Poisoning at a Feast 215
Arthur's Seat 216
A Long Desideratum apparently well supplied 216
To Correspondents 216

No. XXVIII.

Fairies 217
Mr Galt's Literary Autobiography, Gallant and Affecting Conclusion of 219
Romance of Real Life 220
The Week.—From Wednesday October 8, to Tuesday October 14 221
A Scene after a Thunder Storm 221
Wars with Wild Beasts 222
Good news for the Readers of the 'Fairie Queene' 223
Three Ogresses v. Gibbon 223
Table Talk.—Annibal Carricci's 'Christ appearing to St Peter'—Noble Occupation for the Leisurely Taste of the Gypsies—Morland's Rural Taste 223
A Flood 223
Belief in Spirits, &c. 224
Chords Touched 224
To Correspondents 224

No. XXIX.

Romance of Common-place 225
Romance of Real Life 225
The Word "Fairy" 226
Hints for Table Talk 226
History of Sugar 227
The Week.—From Wednesday October 15, to Tuesday October 21 228
The Broom Girl 228
Hindoo Superstition 228
"It is But" 229
Ghost-Reading of our Ancestors . . . 230
Fairies 231
Table Talk.—Admirable Remark—How to help the Judgment of Others . . . 232
To Ianthe, who Died Young 232
To Correspondents 232

No. XXX.

Genii and Fairies of the East and Arabian Nights 233
The Week.—From Wednesday October 22, to Tuesday October 28 237
Romance of Real Life 238
Drumwhinn Bridge over the River Orr . 238
Balls 238
A Doubt and an Answer 239
The Two Oaks in Hyde Park 240
The Speculator in Spite of Himself . . 240
To Correspondents 240

No. XXXI.

Amiableness superior to Intellect . . . 241
The 'Hans Sachs' of Dover 242
Romance of Real Life 242
A Domestic Admission into the Speculations of a Great and Loving Mind . . . 243
The Week.—From Wednesday October 29, to Tuesday November 4 244
Specimens of Celebrated Authors . . . 245
Specimens of the Essence of Poetry . . . 246
Pretty Story of Affection in Childhood . 246
Table Talk.—Benefits of Ventilation—Opinions of Aristotle—A Lesson in Sentiment . . 248
To Correspondents 248

No. XXXII.

Of Peter Wilkins and the Flying Women . 249
Memoirs of Antoinette Bourignon . . . 251
The Week—from Wednesday November 5, to Tuesday November 11 252
Romance of Real Life 253
Pretty Story of Affection in Childhood (concluded) 254
Table Talk—A True Lesson of Charity—The Better Part of Braminical Teaching—Ducange and his Glossary 256
To Correspondents 256

No. XXXIII.

A New Book worth knowing 257
Autobiography of a Butterfly 259
The Week—from Wednesday November 12, to Tuesday November 18 260
Romance of Real Life 261
Hortensius 261
Prejudice 262
Fairy Song 263
The Village Alehouse 264
Affecting Account of Mr Bampfylde . . 264
Three Pleasantries 264
Table Talk—St Overseer and St Overall—An Honest Lover—Address of Virtue—Excellent Advice to Poets—Day-Break . . 264
To Correspondents 264

No. XXXIV.

Page.

Twilight Accused and Defended 265
Hints for Table Talk 266
Madrigal 268
The Week.—From Wednesday November 19, to Tuesday November 25 268
Romance of Real Life 268
Specimens of Celebrated Authors . . . 269
The Drawing-room Scrap-Book for 1835 . 270
Instructions for Choosing a Dwelling House . 270
Burns 271
The Squirrel 272
Table Talk.—Good Logic—Self-Aid against Perturbation 272
To Correspondents 272

No. XXXV.

The Cat by the Fire 273
Abodes of Men of Genius 274
Castle-building 275
Adam Fleming and Fair Helen 275
The Meeting of the Amici 276
The Lares Ironical; or, Fire-irons and Hearth-brush 276
Charming Specimen of French Manners . 276
The Week—From Wednesday November 26, to Tuesday December 2 277
Romance of Real Life 277
Life and Character of Mæcenas . . . 278
The Wish 280
To Correspondents 280

No. XXXVI.

"A Now;" Descriptive of a Cold Day . . 281
Ode to a Friend 282
Education of the Middle Classes . . . 282
The Week—From Wednesday December 3, to Tuesday December 9 285
Romance of Real Life 285
Madame de Beaufremont and Cartouche, the Robber 285
Malagrida 286
The Absent Member 286
Sir Walter Raleigh 288
Polysyllabic Rhymes 288
To Correspondents 288

No. XXXVII.

Put up a Picture in your Room . . . 289
The Celebrated Case of Mary Squires and Elizabeth Canning 290
Hints for Table Talk 291
The Week—From Wednesday December 10, to Tuesday December 16 292
Romance of Real Life 293
Sorrowful Story 293
Ghost Stories 294
Fine Arts 296
To Correspondents 296

No. XXXVIII.

Notice to the Public — Improvement of the London Journal for the ensuing Year . 297
Shakspeare and Christmas and Mr Landor's New Book 297
Romance of Real Life 299
The Week—From Wednesday December 17, to Tuesday December 23 402
Sisters of Charity 302
Fine Arts 303
Bentham on Anger 304
Table Talk—Exquisite Rhyme—Poetry, Philosophy, and Religion—A Secret of Longevity—The Poor of England 304
To Correspondents 304

No. XXXIX.

To the Public 305
Christmas Eve and Christmas Day . . . 305
The Song of the Cat 306
Account of the singular Animal, the Duck-billed Water-Mole 307
The Week—From Wednesday December 24, to Tuesday December 30 309
Romance of Real Life 310
An honest Christmas Carol 311
Fine Arts and Music 311
Sonnet 312
Lancashire Witches 312
Table Talk—Bad Translations — Involuntary Trip to the West Indies—Ancient Reform Schedule 312
To Correspondents 312

No. XL.

New Years' Day. New Years' Gifts. The Wassail-bowl 313
The Week—From Wednesday December 31st, to Tuesday January 6 314
Romance of Real Life 315
A Stile 315
Fine Arts 316
To Correspondents 316